No.315 –IE

Dt. 05/02/2019

ORDER

Whereas Government in the Irrigation & Waterways Department, in compliance with Judgement & Order Dt. 11.05.2013 of the Hon'ble Court of Special Judge, Second Court, Jalpaiguri in Special Case No. 1/06 arising out of Mal P.S. No. 118/98 Dt.16.7.98, G.R. No. 926/98 U/s 420/418/409/406/409/34/477A/34/120B of the I.P.C. and after examination of reports of District Magistrate, Jalpaiguri, Divisional Commissioner of Jalpaiguri Division, Superintendent of police, Jalpaiguri and also considering the reports of District P.P., Jalpaiguri and valued opinion of Ld L.R., W.B., has considered on summum bonum and further scope on matter of exonerations of the accused officer Sri Kartik Chandra De, Ex-Sub-Assistant Engineer since retired;

AND

Whereas, this Administrative Department has issued order no.2507-IE Dt.03.12.2014 and exonerated Sri De from the charge levelled against him under the Departmental Proceedings drawn up vide Memorandum No.121-IE(V) Dtd.23.11.1998, giving effect on payment of all admissible pensionary benefits to Sri Kartik Chandra De, Ex- Sub-Assistant Engineer , as per his entitlement as on date of his retirement on 31.03.2005,

AND

Whereas, it is reported that the payment of arrear Pay & Allowances as fallen due to Sri De since retired on 31.03.2005, and subsequently exoneration from all charges leveled against him, was given an objection by Jalpaiguri Treasury-II, on the analogy of rules & regulation as enshrined in Rule 4.024 of W.B.T.R., and such delay in submitting the same is beyond administrative control due to pendency of criminal case as aforesaid, at judicial forum.

Now, therefore, the Governor is hereby pleased to condone the delayed period which is more than thirteen years and the undersigned, by the order of the Governor, is directed to say that the undrawn amount of arrear Pay & Allowances as admissible, may be released in favour of Sri Kartik Chandra De.

It is ordered further that copy of this order to be attached with the bill at the time of presentation to the Treasury concerned.
